Should the tickets be not all sold when the concert comes off, the presents will be distributed in proportion to the number sold.

It is hoped the public will promptly respond to this effort to establish upon a firm basis a delightful resort during the heated months.

"Little Nell" again to-night.

The Katie Putnam matinee this evening at 3 o'clock.

Lost—A fan at the theatre last night. See notice.

Our Legislative incidents necessarily crowded out to-day.

The last appearance of the people's favorate, Little Katie to-night.

Remember this is the last night of the "little favorite." Go and see her.

Colonel S. D. Pool, the Principal Clerk of the House, goes home to day on a short furlough.

The President of the Richmond and Danville Railroad, and North Carolina Division of same, has issued orders to the effect that all delegates attending the annual Agricultural Convention, convening in Raleigh on the 11th inst., will be furnished with tickets for one fare.

After the most successful rendition of Fanchon last evening by the little favorite, Katie Putnam, we heard not less than forty-seven discussions in regard to the comparative merits of Maggie Mitchell and Katie Putnam on this character. We voted for the "little favorite," and carried the question by a handsome majority.

J. A Porter has resigned the position of Township Constable and C. M. Farris elected in his stead. Mr. Farris has given the required bond and entered upon the discharge of his duties. Having proven himself a very efficient police officer, it is reasonably expected that he will deport himself accordingly in his new role.

We are requested by a few batchelor friends to enter their solemn protest against the ladies wearing the present style of hats at the theatre. They say they can patiently submit to a double story hat, but when they wear them three stories high, with a Mansard roof and a United States flag attached, it is unbearable, and cannot be seen over. Ladies put on your wool caps; if it is not altogether as fashionable, it is more convenient for we poor fellows behind you, who care nothing about the particular style of your head or what is on it.

GENERAL ACT OF CORPORATION.—Many bills of incorporation are coming up before the Legislature, and we are confident much time and trouble can be saved to parties praying for the same, by an examination of the general act upon this question, embraced in chaptor 199 of laws of 1871-'72. The Act concludes that "No bill to incorporate any company shall be read in either House of the General Assembly unless the same shall be accompanied by a receipt from the Treasurer of the State for $25.'

SHERIFFS TO BE REIMBURSED.—The Legislature has passed a bill authorizing to all Sheriffs who have brought convicts to the Penitentiary for re-imbursing incurred by the said Sheriffs in transporting the said convicts. This is a question of much moment to many Sheriffs in the State, and quite a number are now in the city holding their claims. The question created much discussion in the Legislature, and it is thought these claims will foot up to something over $10,000.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Col. Thos. S. Sneed, a member of the Confederate Congress from Missouri, but now practicing law in New York, was in the city yesterday.

We were pleased to see W. W. Baxter, of Baxter, Nash & Co., Norfolk, Va., in our sanctum yesterday.

Major Charles M. Steadman, of Wilmington, is in the city.

ELECTED TREASURER.—At an adjourned meeting of the State Agricultural Society held yesterday afternoon, Mr. P. A. Wiley, of this city, was elected Treasurer for the ensuing year, vice Mr. W. H. Jones resigned.

[Reported especially for the Daily News and Christian Advocate.]

Proceedings of the 36th Session of the N. C. Conference of the M. E. Church, South, held at Fayetteville, N. C., commencing December 4th, 1872.

FIRST DAY.

The Conference convened in the Methodist church at 9 o'clock, a. m., Bishop Robert Paine, D. D., President, and was opened with religious services conducted by the Bishop. The Scripture lesson read was 2 Tim. 1 chapter Hymn 272, was sung.

"And are we yet alive,"

When prayer had been offered, the Bishop addressed the Conference in reference to his return to them after so short an interval—the cause of his not holding any of the District Conferences the past year, and gave a cheering account of the progress the church is making throughout the entire land.—His charge to the ministry in regard to their conduct in association with one another, and the community in which they were sojourning was very solemn and impressive.

The roll was then called by Dr. B Craven, Secretary of the last Conference, and the following ministers and delegates answered to their names:

RALEIGH DISTRICT.

W H Bobbitt, Presiding Elder, reported the District in a good spiritual condition. Sunday schools prosperous—prayer meetings better attended and more frequent than heretofore. His character passed, and that of the following preachers: A W Mangum, A R Raven, A B Betts, J E Thompson, P J Carraway, O J Brent, W C Gannon, M J Hunt, H H Gibbons, T B Reeks, J B Bobbitt, H T Hudson.

When the name of James Reid was called, it was announced by the Presiding Elder that he had died, and related the circumstances attending his death. Dr. Closs moved to adjourn the Conference, as a mark of respect to his memory, and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by the Bishop.

AN INTERESTING PET.—All persons desiring an interesting, sweet-tempered and intelligent pet, will please call at the office of the NEWS, where information of such can be procured. It was sent to a friend in this city from the mountains of Western North Carolina. On the way down a colored boy attempted to investigate the condition of the denizen of the cage with his finger. He was detained a few minutes until the box was opened and the loving clasp of the occupant broken. First blood.

He reached Raleigh and being an unusual sight, was much admired. After a few days he was released. He made for the garden, and to the horror of the mistress of the household, went for the celery bed. Assistance was procured, and after three hours work and four bites, he was secured in a chicken-coop. Since then he has reached through the slats and killed a chicken in an adjoining coop. He is for sale.

His acquirements are beauty, devilishness, an ability to catch food better than a dog, and to whip any bird in the city, a fondness for stealing and hiding, and a latent power of talking. If he ever exercises this power, he will be sure to learn profanity before prayer. He is a raven.

KATIE PUTNAM.—This charming and attractive little actress appeared last evening in her favorite character of "Fanchon, the Cricket." As before stated, we have not the space to devote to a fair critique on the play. Suffice it to say that Mr. Browne on his announcement, that she was the best in America, we are not prepared to dispute. Miss Katie is a success and we are pleased that she is justly appreciated by our citizens, as her full house last night well attested. At the special request of many citizens, she repeats to-night "The Old Curiosity Shop," in which she plays to perfection the character of "Little Nell."

OBITUARY.

At Creekside, near Morganton, N. C., death claimed as its own JOHN M third son of Thomas G. and Eliza M. Walton, in the twenty-ninth year of his age.

He entered the confederate service in 1861, and remained there till our banners were trailed in defeat. His old comrades in arms will remember his courage and his chivalry, and drop a tear over the loss of him who though but a young boy was a gallant soldier. A mysterious Providence spared him in the great struggle which was lost, for a grander triumph and a more glorious victory under the banner of the Cross. Our friend, our companion has gone. For nearly four years he was a communicant member of the episcopal church, and his purity of character, his moral bearing, and his devotion to the cause of Christ will leave behind him a hallowed memory, and doubly endear him to the loving hearts of his bereaved family. His last expiring moments were as full of love and purity as an angel's dream. As his family gathered around his couch he spoke incessantly of God and his goodness, and implored them never to wander from the fold. When requested not to talk so much, he said, "I must deliver the message which God has sent." What a glorious death, what a triumph over the world, sin and the grave. In this last struggle Faith was his breast plate, Hope the girdle of his heart, and high Heaven his holy reward. His beautiful words of trust and love went kindling to the Throne of God, lighting the pathway for the flight of his redeemed spirit.

The glory of the Son of Righteousness seemed to part the unfolding veil of futurity with its kiss, and pour celestial radiance upon his soul. Heaven itself seemed to fill me his dying eyes, and its harps and its hymns to string his almost cordless heart. He spoke as if he would soon recline beneath the cooling shadows of the trees of the New Jerusalem which spread their branches of living emerald o'er the pavilions of the blest.

Oh, Death! Thou most mysterious mystery. When we least expect you your pale shadows are darkening upon the dial of our doom. When we dream not of you your dew damps are gathering on our brow. But our friend feared you not. He was prepared to meet you. When the faces of loved ones, the beauty of the earth, and the imagery of the sky faded from his vision, he held in his heart the precious signas with which to pass the sleepless sentinels of the Pearly Gates.

How sweet it is to know that those eyes now closed in death, beam with lustre in the land Over Yonder. That that voice now hushed in the silence of the tomb has joined the Angels' Choir; that those limbs now cold and stiff walk the streets of Paradise regalled, crowned with the redeemed and God in the midst.

Early in life Death has snapped the silver chord, and broken the golden bowl at the fountain. Heaven sent an angel escort to receive his soul, and he gave it up.

"And then secure
From pain, from grief, and all that we endure
He slept in peace—say rather soured to Heaven,
Upborn from earth by Him to whom 'tis given
In his right hand to hold the golden key
That ope's the ports of Immortality."

A friend, C. M.

Mr. Humphrey, a bill to incorporate the town of Mt. Olive, in Wayne county. Referred.

Mr. Ellis, from Columbus, requiring the Clerks of the Superior Courts to have their office open every Monday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. for the transaction of probate business. Referred.

Motions and Resolutions.

Mr. Welch moved to reconsider the vote of yesterday concerning the sale of the Western N. C. Railroad. Vote reconsidered, and Mr. Welch moved to amend former resolution by making said committee to consist of eight members instead of five, and that the same committee be allowed to send for persons and papers. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Welch, the same resolution was ordered to be enrolled and sent to the House at once.

Messages from the House

Informing the Senate of the passage of a number of bills.

Mr. Welch called up bill incorporating Square Stone Lodge No. 10, A. F. & A. M., of Warren county.

Messrs. Worth and Cowles thought the general incorporation law should cover all these motions.

Mr. Love moved a reference of the question to committe, with instructions to ascertain if the general act did not control it, and if not, why not. Referred.

Bills on Last Reading.

Bill incorporating the North Carolina State Life Insurance Company. Passed.

Mr. Todd opposed the measure—this was not a garrison or a fort, neither was it an army headquarters. Nothing should be done to stir up the feelings of the past. This was not the way to preserve harmony between those who had thought different only a few years ago.

Mr. Ellis, of Columbia, could not see any harm in raising this flag.

Mr. Merrimon favored the resolution.

Resolution adopted.

Mr. Anderson, of Clay, the bill was indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Houston, the fourth consideration of the bill was postponed till 12 o'clock on Friday next, and made the special order for that hour.

Under suspension of rules on motion of Mr. Bryson, of Jackson, House bill No. 32, in regard to the formation of the county of Alto was taken up.

The Committee on Towns, Counties and Townships, recommended that the name of Chattooga be inserted instead of Alto.

Mr. Brown, of Davidson, moved its indefinite postponement.

Mr. Johnson said he hoped the gentleman would withdraw his motion; that the bill was one of merit and should be promptly considered by this House. He knew the section of country in which the proposed county was to be formed, and while he was prejudiced against new counties, he was in favor of this bill on its merits alone.

Mr. Stanford, though he had fathered the bill in the last session for the little county of Pamlico, yet he desired to state now that he was opposed to any more new counties, unless special merit could be shown. It the people of the old counties from which this county was to be formed were willing, he would not oppose the bill, but he must know that before voting for it.

Mr. Brown said he did not intend to cut off debate on the merits of the bill, and would withdraw his motion to postpone.

Mr. Whitmire advocated the passage of the bill.

Mr. Lackey was sorry to be compelled to oppose the bill, but did so from conscientious convictions of duty.

THE SUIT AGAINST THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

We have before stated the fact that the suit of Swasey and others, plaintiffs, against the North Carolina Railroad and the State Treasury, has been decided at the term of the Circuit Court now in session in this city. The decree in favor of the plaintiffs was to the effect that the money now in the hands of the Receiver, $256,500, be distributed to the holders of the bonds issued to the North Carolina Railroad Company, being eighty per cent of the coupons due upon the bonds, proved before the Commissioner appointed by the Court

As this is an important suit, and the matter is of interest to bondholders as well as to the public at large, we will give a brief history of the same and the circumstances attending it.

When the last Legislature was in session, in order to meet the necessary expenses of the State government, such as the per diem of the members and the like, a resolution was passed, authorizing the Public Treasurer to pay out funds in his hands belonging to the State, which had accrued from the semi-annual dividends declared by the North Carolina Railroad. But before this fund was paid out in accordance with the above act, certain bondholders in New York obtained an injunction from Judge Bond, restraining the Treasurer from applying the said dividends for the purposes specified by the resolution of the General Assembly, as the said bondholders claimed a lien upon the stock, and contended that the dividends belonged to them; that they should be applied to the payment of the interest on the bonds held by themselves.

A bill in Equity was filed in the Circuit Court by Swasey, of New York in behalf of himself and all other holders of these bonds, asking for the distribution of the dividends for the payment of the interest due on the said bonds, and for the sale of the stock held by the State to pay the interest in arrears. Samuel F. Phillips, Esq., was appointed the Receiver.

In order to understand thoroughly the ground upon which Swasey and the other complainants in the suit base their claims, it will be necessary to refer to the acts of the Legislature relating to the incorporation of the North Carolina Road, and to the issue of bonds in aid of its construction and completion.

By an act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, ratified the 27th day of January, 1849, the North Carolina Railroad Company was incorporated with a capital of $4,000.000

The State, as provided for in this act of incorporation, subscribed to three-fourths of the stock in said road, and in payment of said subscription issued her own bonds of the denomination of One thousand dollars, each, as follows:

January 1, 1853,	$497,000
July 1, 1853,	481,000
January 1, 1854,	4.7,000
July 1, 1854,	118,000
January 1, 1855,	305,000
April 1, 1855,	289,000
Total,	$2,897,000

The credit of the State stood so high at that time these bonds were readily sold at an average premium of 7 per cent.

The forty first section of said act of incorporation, after pledging the public faith of the State for their redemption, goes on to say: "And in addition thereto all the stock held by the State in the North Carolina Railroad Company, hereby created, shall be, and the same is hereby pledged for that purpose; and any dividends of profit which may from time to time be declared on the stock held by the State shall be applied to the payment of the interest accruing on said bonds."

Now, this Railroad Company has declared semi annual dividends of three per cent. upon its stock since the year 1867, the State, of course, receiving semi annually $90,000 upon her $3,000,000 of stock. But instead of applying this money to the payment of the interest on the above mentioned bonds, as required by the forty-first section of the act authorizing their issue, she has appropriated it to other purposes.

The act referred to above, with all supplementary acts relating thereto, were laid before the Hon. Caleb Cushing by Swasey and others, and his written opinion obtained as to their rights in the premises. In this opinion he uses the following language: "This act not only pledged the faith of the State to the payment of the principal of the bonds, and the interest as it falls due by the terms of both the 38th and 41st sections, and thus created an implied lien on its stock; but by the legislation of the 41st section made this lien express so as in law to constitute a statutory mortgage binding in terms as well the stock as the dividends of the State. * * * * Bondholders cannot sue the State, it is true, but they may file a bill against the Railroad Company, praying for an injunction to prevent payment of dividends to the State—for the attribution of those dividends to the interest due on the bonds, or, if necessary, for the sale of the stock of the State."

The Circuit Court now in session here has decided substantially that the bonds issued in payment of the subcription by the State to three-fourths ($3,000,000,) of the capital stock in the North Carolina Rail Road Company, constitute, by express legislation a statutory mortgage, binding in terms as well the stock as the dividends accruing to the State.

The amount now in the hands or the Receiver to be distributed to the bondholders is $265,500, which by the decree of the Court he is ordered to pay over to the Plaintiffs and other holders of the bonds issued to the North Carolina Rail Road Company, which were proved before the Commissioner of the Court.

THE STATE DEBT.

Perhaps the most important question that will engage the attention of the General Assembly is the settlement of the State debt. We give below a plan proposed by a gentleman in Wilmington, who is endorsed by the Journal as a man of recognized business and financial ability. In publishing and commenting editorially on this proposition of adjustment, the Journal advocates the postponement of the question until next Winter. That paper opposes any increase of taxation to pay the interest on the public debt, and thinks that the matter ought to be deferred until all hope of amending the Constitution be passed.

It is certain that our people are already taxed in a manner too exorbitant and grievous to think of imposing farther burdens upon them. But the express language of the Constitution scarcely admits of a doubt as to its meaning and obligation.

In the present dilemma, it is difficult to agree upon a plan of compromise that will be acceptable and honorable to all parties. Without endorsing the proposition below we publish it for what it is worth:

A PLAN FOR THE ADJUSTMENT OF THE STATE DEBT.

1st. Appoint a commission, with the Governor at its head, consisting of five of the best informed, most trusted and most influential citizens of the State, without regard to parties or politics opinions, to examine into and determine what class or classes of the public debt the State is bound in honor and good faith to provide for, and what is the whole amount of principal and interest now justly due to the holders of its bonds.

2d. Let the same commission carefully inquire into and determine as to the proportion of said total amount, which can be safely assumed at once, without requiring excessive or oppressive taxation upon the people and property of the State, to provide for the certain and regular payment of interest.

3d. Authorize the issue of new bonds, bearing six per cent. interest, to the amount so determined, as being within the present ability of the State to provide for.

4th. Give notice to the holders of all bonds, which shall have been approved under the provisions of the first section hereof, that upon the surrender of such bonds, or any of them, new bonds, as provided in the third section, will be given in the proportion determined upon, together with certificates of indebtedness for the remainder of the principal and interest of the surrendered bonds.

5th. Said certificates to bear no interest, but to be issued under the express condition that one-fifth of them shall be convertible into new six per cent. bonds at the end of five years, and one-fifth shall be so convertible at intervals of each term of five years thereafter, until the whole are redeemed.

JUDGE SETTLE'S APPOINTMENT.

As stated in our local columns yesterday, Hon. Thomas Settle was appointed on Thursday Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Hon. R. P. Dick.

This appointment is quite unexpected, as Judge Settle resigned his position on the Supreme Court bench in 1871, and has since taken a very active part in the politics of the State and nation.

It was rumored through the New York and Washington papers that President Grant would tender the position of Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, to Judge Settle, as soon as Judge Nelson resigned. We see, however, that the President has bestowed that appointment on Hon. Ward Hunt.

Since Pool has been defeated in his aspirations for re-election to the United States Senate, it is not unlikely that he may be offered some position in the Cabinet, as it is understood he is anxious to be made Secretary of the Interior. As Settle's name has been mentioned in connection with the position of Post Master General, he may have withdrawn his claims for a seat in the Cabinet in favor of Pool, and this may have had something to do with his recent appointment as Justice of the Supreme Court of the State.

THE PER DIEM.

The Legislature on Thursday re-enacted the law of 1870-'71, providing for the per diem and mileage of the members of the Legislature.

This has been a vexed question at every session of the General Assembly—many members taking the occasion for attempting to make party or individual capital out of a very small subject.—Much valuable time has been lost and the people of the State have been subjected to heavy expense on account of protracted discussions and lengthy speeches on this subject, and we are glad that the present Legislature has disposed of the matter promptly and satisfactorily.

While we should have favored Col. Bennett's substitute, providing $4.00 per day as the pay of the members, we do not think $5.00 is an extravagant price, and do not believe the people of the State will have any complaints to make on that score.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE KU KLUX.

At the request of a subscriber we republish the following part of the President's message in regard to the Ku Klux:

"Reckless and lawless men, I regret to say, have associated themselves together, in some localities, to deprive other citizens of the rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution of the United States, and to that end have committed deeds of blood and violence; but the prosecution and punishment of many of these persons have tended greatly to the repression of such disorders. I do not doubt that a great majority of the people in all parts of the country favor the full enjoyment by all classes of persons of these rights to which they are entitled under the Constitution and laws, and I invoke the aid and influence of all good citizens to prevent organizations, whose objects are by unlawful means to interfere with those rights. I look with confidence to the time, not far distant, when the obvious advantages of good order and peace will induce an abandonment of all combinations prohibited by the acts referred to, and when it will be unnecessary to carry on prosecutions or inflict punishment to protect citizens from the lawless doings of such combinations. Applications have been made to me to pardon persons convicted of a violation of said acts, upon the ground that clemency in such cases would tend to tranquilize the public mind, and to test the virtue of that policy, I am disposed, as far as my sense of justice will permit, to give to those applications a favorable consideration. But any action thereon is not to be construed as indicating any change in my determination to enforce with vigor such acts so long as the conspiracies and combinations therein named disturb the peace of the country. It is much to be regretted, and is regretted by no one more than myself, that a necessity has ever existed to execute the Enforcement Act. No one can desire more than I that the necessity of applying it may never again be demanded."

A Ghastly Spectacle--An Old Man Found Dead in his Room--The Body Half Devoured by Rats.

The dead body of an old man, named Patrick Doughney, was discovered yesterday afternoon in the small frame cottage No. 620, West Van Buren street, where he had died under circumstances which will probably forever remain a mystery. For a long time past he has been the only human occupant of the house, his only companion being a pet dog, of which he was very fond, and which was found in the room in a half-famished condition when the body was discovered. Doughney was a tailor by trade, and made his living by doing odd jobs. But few ever visited him, and consequently his absence was not noticed by his neighbors until his dead body was discovered yesterday, half eaten up by rats. Then they suddenly remembered that they had not seen him about his place as usual for nearly a week.

The body was first discovered about one o'clock yesterday afternoon by a young man named Joseph Donnegan, who had given the old man an order for a suit of clothes something more than a week since, and went to his house, according to agreement, for the purpose of obtaining them. On his arrival he found the doors locked, and, after trying in vain for some time to effect an entrance, he pushed up one of the windows and looked in, when a most sickening scene met his gaze. In the middle of the floor lay the ghastly corpse, naked with the exception of the shirt, and with the flesh almost entirely eaten off the breast, face and arms.

Horrified at the sight, he closed the window, and hastened to give the alarm at the nearest police station. No marks of violence were found upon the body which would indicate that the deceased had met his death by any foul means, and it is supposed that he died from natural causes, and that his body was attacked after death by the vermin, or perhaps by his dog, which had left in it the frightful condition in which it was found.—Chicago Times, Nov. 30.

Captain William Kendall died on Wednesday at Fairfield, Me., at the advanced age of eighty-nine.

SIXTEEN YEARS OF SUCCESS.—In 1856, the now famous MUSTANG LINIMENT was first made known to the public by an extensive system of advertising. From that time to the present, the demand for it has been steadily increasing until it has taken the lead of all embrocations, lotions, ointments, and other external remedies, imported or domestic, ever introduced into the American market. In the most celebrated racing and trotting stables, in the establishments of stage and city car companies, and in the stables of private gentlemen, it is the only recognized cure for such diseases of the horse as require outward treatment. Nor is it less valuable as a local application for some of the most distressing complaints to which man is subject. Rheumatism, stiffness of the joints, neuralgia, sore throat, tumors, weak, aching feet, &c., yield to its pain-subduing, counter-irritant properties, and burns, scalds and cuts are healed with incredible rapidity under its operation.

$1,000 REWARD is offered by the proprietor of DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY for a med cine that will equal it in the cure of Bronchitis, severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption

MILLVILLE, FLA., Sept. 22, 1866.

Dr. Wm. H. Tutt:

Dear Sir—In my young days I was rather wild, and became the victim of a loathsome disease. I was treated by an eminent physician, and thought I was cured. After moving to this State, I was horrified at finding that the disease was making its appearance again, in a secondary form. Ulcers formed in my mouth and on different parts of my body. I also became afflicted with severe Rheumatism. I employed different physicians, and used various patent medicines for months, all to no purpose. During a visit to Jacksonville I saw your Sarsaparilla and Queen's Delight, and concluded to try it. I have taken a dozen bottles, and believe that the poison is entirely driven from my system. I intend continuing it, however, to make a sure thing of it. At the request of your Agent, I send this to you. You are at liberty to use it as you like. Yours respectfully,

JOHN H. GUILFORD.

LIVER COMPLAINT AND BILIOUSNESS.—Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills exert a direct and powerful influence on the Liver, and will with certainty relieve that important organ from disease and restore its normal functions.

THE TENACITY OF TRUTH.—When a nation as clear-headed as the Americans once become convinced, from long experience and observation, that an article possesses superior excellence as a medicine, not all the preposterous clamor of all the worthless nostrum venders in the universe can shake their belief in its efficiency. Truth is a very tenacious thing, as these worthies are beginning to discover. The American Britain has too firm a hold upon the popular esteem to be in the slightest degree effected by the cold water diatribes which the advertisers of fermented slops, "without a particle of alcohol," are so fond of launching against alcoholic preparations. The public knows very well that this peerless renovant and tonic does contain spirits, but it also knows that they are of the purest, and most wholesome description, while the added Peruvian Bark is the most active and beneficial diffuser of its remedial and invigorating properties throughout the system, which could possibly be adopted.

THE SECRET OF BEAUTY.—What is it? no longer asked, for the world of fashion and all the ladies know that it is procured by using a delightful and harmless toilet preparation known as G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." Its beautifying effects are truly wonderful. Depot, 6 Gold Street, New York.

WE HAVE FREQUENTLY HEARD mothers say they would not be without Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, from the birth of the child until it has finished with the teething siege, under any consideration whatever.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL, has a world-wide reputation as the surest and best illuminating oil. Over two million gallons have been sold for the past two years, from which no accidents of any description have occurred. Send for circular. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

BURNETT'S STANDARD FLAVORING EXTRACTS are neatly put up in Unpatnelled 2 oz., 5 oz. and 10 oz. bottles, and are for sale by the trade generally in every principal city and town in the United States, Canadas, and British Provinces, as well as in many other foreign countries.

HELP FOR THE HOPELESS.—You are weak, dejected, miserable, and nothing does you any good, you say. Don't despair. There is balm in Gilead. Have you tried Vinegar Bitters? No! Then why don't you? Whether your complaint be dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, constitutional debility, or any other trouble, Vinegar Bitters will revive and renovate your shattered system, as a genial rain refreshes the withered flowers.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also, as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers, the Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

TO OWNERS OF HORSES.—No one who has ever used Dr. Tobin' Horse Venetian Liniment, will ever be without it; it is a certain cure for Colic, Sore Throat, Cuts, Bruises and Old Sores. Warranted superior to any other; in pint bottles, at One Dollar. Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

RISLEY'S BUCHU is a reliable Diuretic and Tonic for all derangements of the urinary and genital organs. The genuine, as formerly sold by Haviland, Harral & Risley, and their branches, is now prepared by H. W. Risley, the originator and Proprietor; and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, New York.

SYAPNIA, or opium purified, the most perfect anodyne in the market, made by process of Dr. I. M. Rigelow, Detroit Medical College. Is always uniform in strength, which is rarely the case in other preparations of Opium.

DEATH IN THE THEATRE.—Just after the fire was extinguished at the Theatre last night, Captain James H. Wilroy, a carpenter, aged forty seven or forty-eight years, returned to his seat in the parquet, and fell back apparently in a swoon. He was immediately borne out and carried to Garnett's drug store, at the corner of Broad and Seventh streets, near the Theatre, where Dr. Wellford, who was promptly called in, did everything to revive him, but in vain. He was dead, past all recall. It is believed that he died of heart disease.

Deceased is said to have been a native of Chesterfield county, unmarried and a very worthy and intelligent man, although he would sometimes drink to excess. He formerly worked at the Tredegar Works, and received his title of Captain from having been Conductor of a Railroad train during the war. It is said that he has been on a "spree" for the last six weeks. A fine gold watch and $228.40 in money were found on his person. Coroner Taylor viewed the body and considered no inquest necessary. The body was given in charge of a Mr. Vaughan, with whom Mr. Wilroy had boarded, for interment, the deceased having no relatives in the city.—Richmond Whig of the 5th.

This is strictly a

HOME LIFE COMPANY.

Its Officers and Directors are citizens of the State, of high character for business capacity, enterprise and probity. It offers every that Northern Companies do, with the great additional consideration that the capital is kept within the State, and, therefore, helps to build up and foster Home Institutions.

Another important fact to be considered is, that the Wilmington Life has thus far obtained A VERY MUCH LARGER INTEREST for the money invested at home, than any of the New York Companies receive for their investments, according to their sworn statements before the Commissioner of that State.

These unquestionable facts should commend this Company, above all others, to our people. Let it be born in mind that millions of dollars received for Life premiums have been sent North since the war, which at once drains the South and enriches the plethoric Capitalists of the North. If there was no other consideration, safety, fairness and cheapness being equal, why North Carolinians should INSURE AT HOME, this were more than sufficient.

THE WILMINGTON LIFE

has excellent special features.

It places no restriction on Residence or Travel; it makes no extra charge for Female risks; and its Policies are incontestable after Five Years.

Its business is managed economically. Its risks are taken with equal caution. Its investments are made judiciously.

Its motto is:

"ECONOMY, PROMPTNESS, FAIRNESS."

Decision in the Warmouth Case.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 6.—In obedience to an order from Judge Durell, the soldiers took possession of the capitol and the Governor's office.

At half-past ten this a. m. every available place in the Circuit Court room were occupied, mostly by colored people. Warmouth appeared at eleven o'clock, followed by Colonel McEnry. Judge Durell soon appeared and commenced to read the decision. After the argument, Durell says the statutes are constitutional, the court has jurisdiction, the legal Board is Warmouth, Herron, Lynch, Hawkins and Longstreet. The order of the court divested of technicalities and argument, follows it, and enjoins Warmouth from any action regarding the last election, unless the persons above named present orders.

The rule for contempt was then continued to Monday and the Court adjourned.

BOSTON, Dec. 6.—In case of the Merchants National Bank of Memphis Tennessee vs. National Bank of Commerce Boston, which occupied the U. S. Circuit Court several days, has resulted in the verdict for the plaintiff, thirty four thousand five hundred and ninety-four dollars and twenty three cents. The suit was brought to recover damages for negligence on the part of defendants in giving up to the consignees bills of lading on a lot of cotton upon the acceptance by consignees of thirty days draft drawn against the shipment and attached to bills of lading and sent on to the defendants bank for collection. The plaintiffs contend that it was the duty of the bank to keep the collateral until the draft was paid, and that by reason of giving up the bills of lading of plaintiffs, lost their security. The consignees having failed before the expiration of thirty days after accepting it.
